

Whitescreen.dev – A Simple Browser-Based Tool for Cleaner Screens and Sharper Focus

In a world full of bloated software and complex apps, Whitescreen.dev stands out by doing one thing — and doing it well. This minimalist, browser-powered tool turns any screen into a fullscreen solid color. Whether you're testing displays, cleaning your monitor, or improving video call lighting, it delivers instant functionality with zero distractions.

What Does Whitescreen.dev Offer?

Whitescreen.dev helps users get more out of their screen. It's ideal for:

- Detecting pixel issues and backlight bleeding
- Revealing dirt and dust for accurate screen cleaning
- Creating a visual background for photos or videos
- Using your screen as a soft light for video conferencing
- Reducing visual clutter to improve focus or aid meditation

All you need is a browser — no setup, no installation, no nonsense.
